

satelite radio should have the same abilities as any other radio station to broadcast any content that they so choose. they should not be limited by another company trying to save them self's by attacking another growing company, this doesnt just affect the company it effects, everyone who is a customer and many of which also listen to the companys who are attacking xm radio, they should worry about us not listening to them anymore!!! thanks and please help xm radio!!